

Honorary Lori Lightfoot AP Assignments

Note: I will not be able to communicate with you at all during the potential work stoppage. So just do the following and keep up with all work. We will start wherever we would have been when class comes back in session. Do not work ahead because I will not necessarily be assigning these assignments if the strike ends sooner. Stay with the dates indicated.

- Continue to stay on task with the Reading Schedule, including all scheduled ARNs.
- QED5 due Thursday 10/17: Which had a greater impact on the AmRev: the Enlightenment or the Great Awakening?
- We will have a Test on Periods 1 & 2 on 10/21. If this day is missed, we will have it day immediately following make up of all missed seminars due to strike.
- Seminar due 10/20. Will be made up day of return from strike.
- QED6 due Wednesday 10/22. Ch 7: What was the most persuasive explanation for the U.S. declaration of war on G.B. in 1812?
- QED8 due Friday 10/25: Were the Sons of Liberty a terrorist organization?
- TLH due Wednesday 10/29: Thinking Like a Historian pp. 298-9. Do Analyzing the evidence section on p. 299 after reading and annotating all documents. Use docs to answer question, citing them DBQ style (in line and parenthetically by number).
- QED9 due Friday 11/1: Ch9: How and why did the rising middle class transform the American identity?
- QED10 due Wednesday 11/6: Was Andrew Jackson the cause of greater democratization in America during the early 19th century?
- Due 11/8 Annotate documents for the JAX DBQ (see it on the class website)
- If strike goes longer than this then whatever... I throw my hands up. Just keep up with reading and notes.
